MEERA BALLAL
The Women's Fund Board Chair

On behalf of the Advisory Board of The Women's Fund, it is my pleasure to welcome you to The Power of the Purse® 2022 luncheon. While every luncheon is special, today we celebrate 25 years of giving to women and girls in Middle Tennessee. This support is made possible by the powerful, brave, and thoughtful women who grew The Women's Fund and its associated funds to the more than $5 million endowment value they have today.

Working with a dynamic Board has been the gift of a lifetime. This year, The Women's Fund has explored and forged new paths. We granted $241,200 to 47 nonprofits and interacted with them in more personal and intimate ways. We expanded the number of Girls Give funds, recognizing the power of giving across generations. We grew participation in our annual Forum as we educated our community on Nashville's role in welcoming refugees. Furthermore, we read books, studied, and discussed how to better approach Nashville's increasing needs for women and girls.

The Women's Fund is what it is today because of your attendance, the passion of our previous 43 The Power of the Purse® Chairs, a committed Board, and dedicated nonprofits who stand shoulder to shoulder to forge a community that is safer, healthier, and more economically secure for women and girls. For this partnership and your friendship, The Women's Fund thanks you.

THE POWER OF THE PURSE® 2022 SPEAKER

TIFFANY DUFU is a catalyst-at-large in the world of women's leadership and is the author of "Drop the Ball," a memoir and manifesto that shows women how to cultivate the single skill they really need in order to thrive: the ability to let go. According to foreword contributor Gloria Steinem, "Drop the Ball" is "important, path-breaking, intimate and brave."

Named to Fast Company's League of Extraordinary Women, Tiffany is Founder and CEO of The Cru, a peer coaching platform for women looking to accelerate their professional and personal growth. She was a launch team member to Lean In and was Chief Leadership Officer at Levo, one of the fastest-growing millennial professional networks. Prior to that, Tiffany served as President of The White House Project, as a Major Gifts Officer at Simmons College in Boston, and as Associate Director of Development at Seattle Girls' School.

Tiffany serves on the board of Girls Who Code and Simmons College. She is a member of Women's Forum New York, Delta Sigma Theta, Sorority, Inc. and is a Lifetime Girl Scout. She lives in New York City with her husband and two children.

Fiercely inspiring

Meet the women of First Horizon who stand with The Women's Fund in the belief that women who lift up other women and girls make our entire community stronger in meaningful ways.

At work and at play,

Jane Eskind

was always helping shape the next generation.

Her support of The Women's Fund
was no different:

For Women, For Generations

From 1913 to Today

From generation to generation, our family has served our community proudly.

“May Dean Eberling is a woman with many legacies but among her greatest may be as a connector of people and a mentor to many.”

-Ben Hall, NewsChannel5 May 29, 2019

The Women’s Fund

was a beneficiary of this connection and mentorship during May Dean Eberling’s lifetime and we were honored to be included as one of five beneficiaries of the charitable foundation May Dean established as a lasting legacy for many in our Middle Tennessee community including women and girls.

Welcoming Refugees: NASHVILLE'S ROLE IN SUPPORTING NEW NEIGHBORS

THE WOMEN'S FUND VIRTUAL FORUM

News reports of Afghan refugees being resettled in the United States have become a daily headline. Nashville has resources that have been in place for decades to greet our new neighbors. On November 16, 2021, The Women's Fund Forum hosted a virtual panel to discuss Nashville's role in supporting these new neighbors.

The panel was filled with experienced women who are part of Nashville's support system for refugees. They shared the history and experience of how their organizations help refugees find friendship, physical and mental healthcare, education, and skills to create independence and economic self-sufficiency.

Panelists included:

Vanessa Lazón

Metro Nashville Public Schools EL Family & Community Specialist (Former Director at Mayor's Office of New Americans)

Amy Richardson

MPH Chief Community Health Officer, Siloam Health

Louisa Saratora

State Refugee Coordinator, Tennessee Office for Refugees (a department of Catholic Charities, Diocese of Nashville)
